

Victoria Diekkamp-Reimann

Born in Frankfurt am Main; holds a Master's degree in German Philology, Political Science and Oriental Studies from the Goethe University Frankfurt.

Has been employed at Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ GmbH) since 2005: from 2005-2008 at GIZ International Services as a project manager for the Middle East, North Africa and Turkey; between 2008-2010 as a project coordinator for the Iraqi Refugees Support Fund within the EU-funded "Health Sector Modernisation Programme (HSMP)" in Damascus, Syria; between 2010-2012 as a project manager and business developer for GIZ International Services in Brussels, Belgium, focusing on food and feed safety, EU Neighbourhood Policy and climate change; between 2012-2014 as a senior manager for industrialized countries focusing on workforce development / vocational training and social inclusion in the USA and EU member states.

Since May 2015: Deputy Secretary General of the German Council for Sustainable Development.